

Loop Capital 2012 Internship Program

About Loop Capital

Loop Capital, founded in 1997, is a highly client-focused investment bank, brokerage and investment management firm that provides creative capital solutions for corporate, governmental and institutional entities across the globe.

The firm is composed of three primary entities: Loop Capital Markets, an agile, fast-growing investment bank and broker dealer, Loop Capital Investment Management, focused solely on unique, alternative investment opportunities, and Loop Financial Products, which implements risk management and structured products. Headquartered in Chicago, the firm has nearly 200 professionals in 22 offices across the country.

Professional Workshops

The employees of Loop Capital will conduct weekly Professional Workshops to provide an awareness and basic understanding of financial markets and increase student awareness of potential career paths. Interns are expected to attend all program workshops and prepare two PowerPoint presentations over the course of the internship.

- Accounting
- Bloomberg Basics
- Effective Presentations
- Financial Literacy and Creating Wealth
- Fixed Income Sales
- Equity Sales and Trading
- Personal Career Development
- Personal Investing
- Professional Communications
- Resume Workshop
- Work Rules and Regulations
- Turning Conflict into Cooperation

Loop Capital's Internship Program is a ten week program beginning June 18th through August 24th offering technical and financial positions to high school, college and graduate students at all academic levels.

Positions are available in Accounting, Analytics, Corporate and Public Finance Investment Banking, Information Technology, and Office Management. The internship program includes immersion in the typical daily work in these areas, as well as workshops, field trips, client presentations, and a presentation to senior management.

Interns will be assigned to a division or group based on his or her career interests, major, related coursework, past internship experiences, and the firm's business needs. Because we accept a broad and diverse group of individuals, our internships are highly competitive.

Students will be challenged to stretch themselves intellectually and contribute to real projects, gaining hands-on experience that can assist them in acquiring a full-time professional position in the industry, while obtaining skills that will be useful throughout their personal and professional lives.

Program Requirements

- * High school, college or graduate student in good academic standing
